

21st December, 2010

Christmas celebrations at Ma Wan Park Noah's Ark for 700 less fortunate
Come with your family to spread goodwill to the community

Ma Wan Park Noah's Ark has a range of Christmas celebrations in store, and Sun Hung Kai Properties (SHKP) is spreading festive joy in the community with a free entry to a needy person for each four-person group ticket bought for December 18 to 25. SHKP also hosted a special gathering for 700 less fortunate people at Noah's Ark today (December 18).

SHKP Vice Chairman and Managing Director Thomas Kwok (second row, fifth right) with 700 less-fortunate families who were invited to Man Wan Park Noah's Ark and received Merry Christmas gifts.

Love and joy for the community

SHKP Vice Chairman and Managing Director Thomas Kwok spoke of his care for children, saying: "We are committed to making Hong Kong an ideal home and we promote harmony and love for life, family and the Earth through Ma Wan Park. Christmas is a time to celebrate love and care, and many families are having a great time here today. I hope the whole community will support this initiative which is expected to benefit around 2,000 people. You can make a difference by showing your care for the needy."

Goodie bags for all

Charity group Citywide Renewal held its 2010 Christmas Delight 2010 at Noah's Ark today with food gift packs for 700 disadvantaged people and special performance by celebrities including a Christmas musical with Thomas Kwok, Ma Wan Park Advisory Committee Chairman Moses Cheng and Committee Member Eric Lee, and Chinese University of Hong Kong Vice-Chancellor and President Joseph Jao-Yiu Sung to spread the message of love and care, blessings and encouragement.

From right: Thomas Kwok, Moses Cheng, Eric Lee and Joseph Sung spread the message of love and care in a Christmas musical.

Exciting Christmas specials

There will be an array of Christmas specials on Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays between December 18 and January 2, featuring animals in dazzling outfits singing and dancing to Christmas tunes, plus a drum performance and hip hop dance. An Amazing Christmas Fair will have something for everyone in the family including game booths and a creative Christmas gift workshop.