

26-December-2010

Loving Heart Christmas Tree at Ma Wan Park Noah's Ark Festive Celebrations for 6,000 Disadvantaged People

Ma Wan Park Noah's Ark invited 6,000 disadvantaged people to Christmas celebrations in December, including nearly 1,000 children and their families on Boxing Day. The Children fashioned a 22-metre Loving Heart Christmas tree display in a show of thanks.

Happy children build a 22-metre Loving Heart Christmas tree at Noah's Ark to show the caring spirit

Love and Joy

Ma Wan Park was developed by Sun Hung Kai Properties to promote harmony and love for life, family and the Earth with creative energy. Nearly 6,000 of Hong Kong's less fortunate from 18 districts had a joyous Christmas at Noah's Ark, and the developer spreads the goodwill of the season by providing one free entry to a needy person for each four-person group ticket bought for December 18 to 25.

New Year Specials

Ma Wan Park will stage an array of exciting programmes on January 1 and 2 to welcome the New Year. There will be Noah's Ark animals in dazzling outfits singing and dancing, a drum performance and hip hop dance, and a carnival offering great fun for the whole family with game booths, creative workshops and a 14-foot inflated outdoor playground.