

Western Calligraphy Workshop 西洋書法工作坊

Western calligraphy is an elegant art that not only fosters literacy learning during the writing process but also enhances concentration and patience. Through practice, learners can significantly improve their handwriting skills when children can further sharpen their hand muscles and development. Additionally, this activity boosts creativity and artistic sense as well as help learners build self-appreciation, confidence, and self-love. As the pen glides across the page, individuals can experience the unique happiness and warmth that calligraphy brings, discovering their own sense of value and joy in the process.
